	11:43			In mjdr's room, talked to Senator Jennings Randolph of West Virginia. The Senator invited him to a dedication being held in West Virginia in the near future. The President said, "I'll look into it. I don't know, Jennings. Let me look and see... I'll let you know." When gently pressed for an answer by the Senator, the President said, "If you have to know now, I'll just have to say 'no' now." The Senator said that for planning purposes, it was good to have an answer now... and expressed thanks.
