

Experience the life and times of Lyndon B. Johnson, one of our nation's most fascinating presidents, and the era of his administration—the turbulent 1960s.

Floor 3

Floors 5-9 are archives. No exhibitions. Staff only.
Restrooms are available on 2nd and 10th floors.

Accessible
Elevators

Accessible
Restrooms

Telephone
Conversation
Station

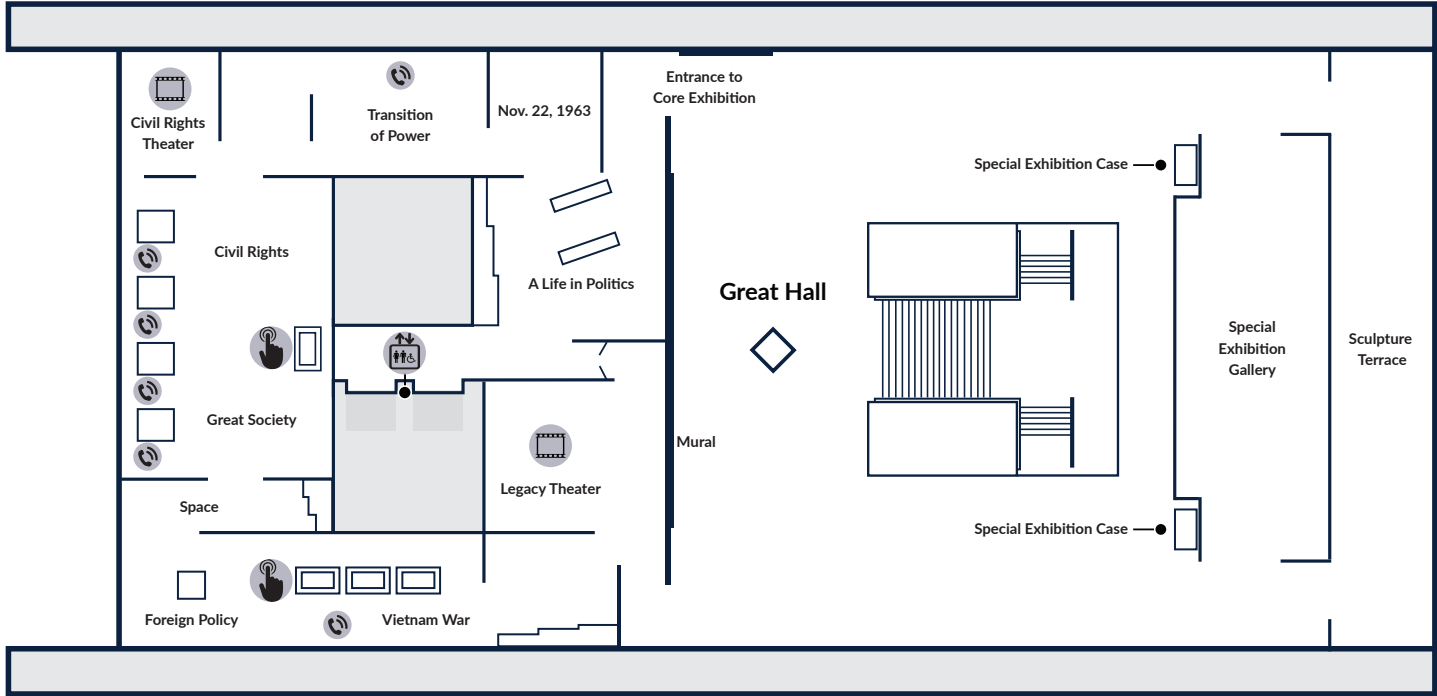

Film

The Store at LBJ

- See the limousine President Johnson used in Texas after the Presidency, and read about other attractions dedicated to President and Mrs. Johnson.
- Learn more about the 36th President in an 11-minute multimedia experience in the Introduction Theater.
- Listen to selected clips from President Johnson's 643 hours of recorded telephone conversations, laugh with the animatronic LBJ telling stories, and explore a timeline spanning the lives of Lyndon and Lady Bird Johnson.
- Browse a large selection of merchandise, including products in honor of President and Mrs. Johnson, souvenirs, and gifts for every occasion. All proceeds support the LBJ Presidential Library.

Floor 4

Floors 5-9 are archives. No exhibitions. Staff only.
Restrooms are available on 2nd and 10th floors.

Accessible Elevators

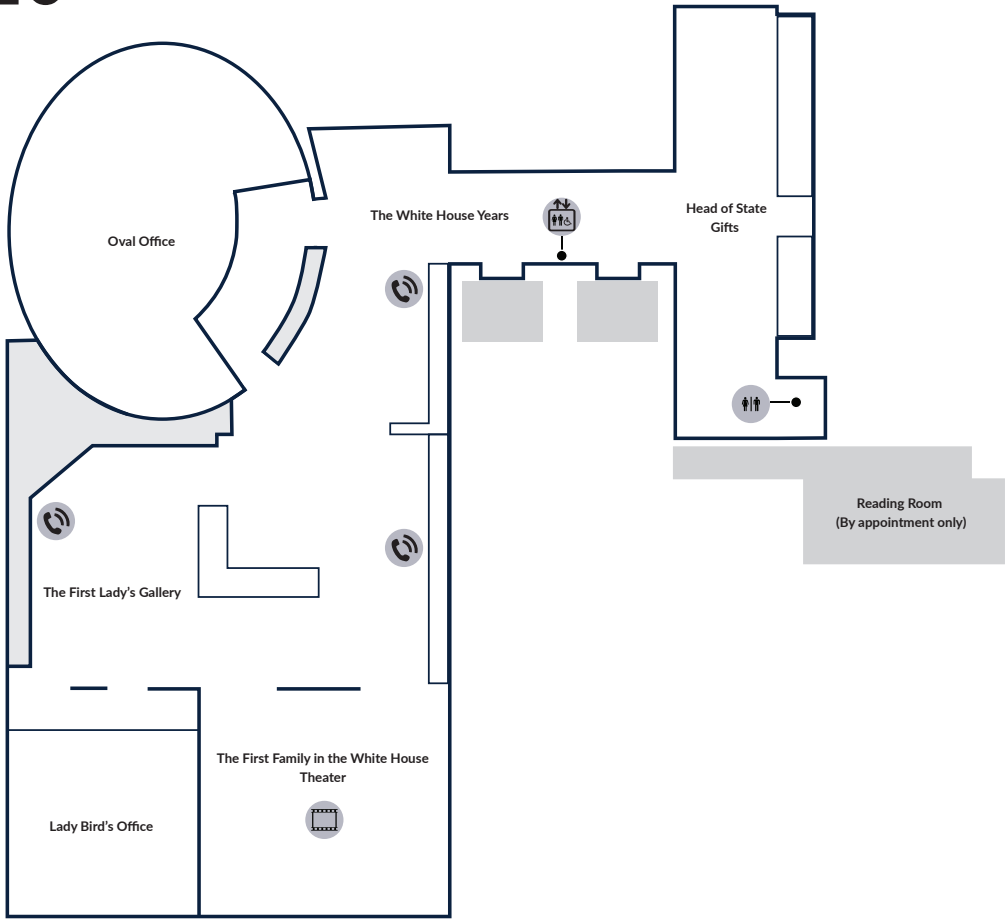

Telephone Conversation Station

Film

Interactive Table

- Look up to see the four floors holding over 45 million pages of documents in the LBJ Library Archives. To learn more about the Archives, visit the interactive exhibits on the north side of the Great Hall.
- View displays in our Special Exhibition Cases.
- Enjoy the official portraits of former Presidents along the walls of the Great Hall.
- Enter the core exhibition to explore both domestic and foreign affairs during the Johnson administration through interactive exhibits, artifacts, films, images, and President Johnson’s own words.

Floor 10

Floors 5-9 are archives. No exhibitions. Staff only.
Restrooms are available on 2nd and 10th floors.

Accessible Elevators

Accessible Restrooms

Telephone Conversation Station

Film

- Discover treasures presented to President and Mrs. Johnson from world leaders and the American people.
- Step into the 7/8 scale replica of the Oval Office. Push the button by the door to hear our audio description.
- Learn more about President and Mrs. Johnson’s early years, and watch a film about life in the White House.